President's Message

As I was sitting here trying to think what to write, it occurred to me that April seems to be a time of "newness".....things coming forth after being dormant all winter, and I started thinking about what is new in the guild.

Paper-piecing is a new technique for many of you and thanks to Jim Jensen and Marlene Sullivan's Block of the Month series, many of you are learning something new and perhaps out of your comfort zone.

If you were at our last program meeting, you know that we now have a new seating arrangement to accommodate all of our members. Nothing is perfect and I know there will be drawbacks to any kind of new seating arrangement that we try, but we are first and foremost a quilt guild, so it was felt that enough seating for everyone was top priority.

We have mentors to help new members and guests learn about the guild. One of the perks of being a mentor, besides meeting new people, is that they get to go to the front of the lunch line. We have been told that this is helping new members feel more comfortable in a crowded room that can feel overwhelming.

We now have a table in the hallway that has upcoming quilt show announcements and other quilt related activities. Be sure to check it out.

And lastly, we are going to have our new Opportunity Quilt displayed in April and the drawing for last year's Opportunity Quilt. Many, many hours have gone into the making of these quilts and the selling of the tickets.....all very much appreciated.

April....Spring.....New....Change.....That's Us....The Santa Rosa Quilt Guild!

Vicki David

Programs & Workshops

ANELIE BELDEN

PROGRAM THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 2014 ~ "THOROUGHLY MODERN DRESDEN"

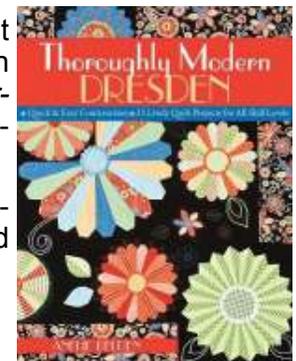

WORKSHOP FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 2014 ~ "DRESDEN SMALL AND SIMPLE"

Fiber artist, Anelie Belden will demonstrate four different blade designs and the modern way to piece these Dresden blocks using her stitch-n-flip technique featured in her Thoroughly Modern DRESDEN book. Select one of three projects; table runner, wall hanging, or quilt.

Not only are the designs modern, they are constructed using a breakthrough piecing technique to improve speed and accuracy.

For more info about Anelie, visit her website at:

May Program

JENNY LYON

PROGRAM MAY 15~“QUILTING IS A CONTACT SPORT”

WORKSHOP MAY 16~”INTODUCTION TO FEARLESS

FREE-MOTION”

Jenny is an award winning art quilter and garment maker. She loves to teach the art of machine quilting to others, and inspire them to do their best work. She has a website (and blog) about art, quilts, garment making and life.

“Quilting makes me skip for joy!” You can view Jenny’s website and blog at: <http://quiltskipper.com/tag/jenny-k-lyon/>

Learn to free motion quilt in a supportive and fun atmosphere. Acquire the skills to begin quilting your own projects at home with your home machine! Free motion quilting allows you to work directly on your own projects with little or no marking and no stencils. The class will begin by working on paper and making lots of mistakes there, and then we begin fearless play on fabric.

June Program

MICHELLE PEERSON

PROGRAM JUNE 19~“OUTSIDE THE BOX”

WORKSHOP JUNE 20~ “ART QUILTS--ROOSTERS ”

Our Program for June 19th will feature Michelle Peerson with her lecture “Outside the Box, Enhancing Your Creativity.” Michelle teaches fun classes utilizing creativity and imagination, offering results and new skill sets.

The Workshop on June 20th, “Art Quilts,” is the perfect beginner class for those who want to learn art quilting using raw edge appliqué. Choose your favorite rooster (Rooster of Brittany or Rooster of Cornwall). Class fee is $40. Create your background prior to class according to instructions on your supply list and start working on your Rooster right away in class (without having to bring your sewing machine). Patterns are available at Guild meetings for $6 each. Visit Michelle’s website: www.michellepeerson.com

Janice Rodgers

Entering Janice Rodgers well organized quilting studio, your eye might fall on a sign that says “Warning: Quilt Pox” ... “Very Contagious to Adults “ ... “No Known Cure” ... Janice has a good case of it, and her passion for the craft is definitely contagious (not that this writer wasn’t already acutely infected).

Raised in San Francisco, Janice has fond memories of the quilts made by her grandmother and great-grandmother from Nebraska. If there is a genetic connection in quilter families, it was passed on to her by an older generation, because the bug skipped her mother.

Janice’s inspiration now comes from the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild. She loves seeing the great variety of quilts displayed at “Show and Tell,” and always enjoys learning something new from her friends or our speakers’ presentations. Melinda Bula, our guest speaker last month, advises that when you are presented with a challenging new skill, go for it ... what do you have to lose? Think outside of the box, and don’t listen to the critics, especially that loud one inside your head.

As much as Janice loves to learn, she’s not taking any more classes until she finishes at least six of the projects she has back logged. Janice never does one quilt from beginning to end without having something else started. Her UFO’s are numerous and reflect her preference for the fall color palette; blues, greens and golds.

Janice is grateful for the level of energy, talent and support provided at SRQG. If searching for a pattern, or needing suggestions or ideas about a certain technique, there is always someone to lend a hand or give advice. It is evident that SRQG is meeting the needs of a very unique niche in the community, as shown by the great attendance we have during the meetings. She honors all of the people willing to work on the committees and community projects.

She is pleased that she was awarded “best use of color,” and has twice won “best hand quilting” from the guild. As one who prefers hand quilting to machine quilting, she is able to consistently quilt 8 to 10 stitches per inch.

Library News

The following is a list of the books that came into our possession since our last newsletter. For images of the covers and more detailed descriptions of the items, just click on LIBRARY on our website www.santarosaquiltguild.org. Linda Hooper has written easy-to-understand directions about how to utilize the library site. To locate her instructions, click on the underlined "here" in the second paragraph at the top of the library page. Let me know if you would like guidance with the site and we'll sit down at the Library's laptop computer after a meeting. A hint: if you are looking for an author, remember to type in the last name first, and if you are searching for a book title, type in the first "important" word leaving the a, an, and the's 'til the end.

BODACIOUS QUILTS FROM JUST ONE BLOCK by Colleen Granger (donated and autographed by the author following her guild presentation)

VISUAL GUIDE TO WORKING IN A SERIES by Elizabeth Barton (recommended by Linda Morand)

Janice has been SRQG Parliamentarian and will be sharing Programs and Workshops for a third term in 2016. She really enjoys working with Programs because it gives her the opportunity to host some of the country's greatest quilters and get to know them more personally as an individual and not just a quilting personality.

Besides quilting, Janice enjoys traveling and camping with her family. She was very involved with the Girl Scouts for more than 15 years and in charge of the kitchen for resident camps, serving meals for more than 1100 people over 3 weeks. She was awarded the "Thanks Badge Award" which is the highest honor the Girl Scouts present to a volunteer.

We're fortunate to have Janice Rodgers as one of our own, and are grateful for the dedication, creativity and support she shares so willingly.

Jim Jensen

CONTEMPORARY QUILTS – Original Patterns Based on the Drawings of M. C. Escher by Kay Parker (requested by Carol Jarvis)

QUICK QUILTED MINIATURES by Darlene Zimmerman (donated by Jan Andrews)

SNUGGLE UP by Beth Merrill Kovich and Retta Warehime (donation)

Wearing your nametag is a huge help to everyone. This is an excellent way for us to get to know each other.

Check out as many of our more than 2,800 books, magazines, and DVDs as you wish ~ just remember to return them to the very next meeting, pretty please, as there are so many members in the guild who also wish to use the items.

Our library needs many, many volunteers. You do not need to formally sign-up to help – we'll take whatever time you can spare before or after any meeting. If you do not like the job you are given, don't be shy – let us know what you would rather do. I can never thank everyone enough for their assistance and support with making our library the best in the entire world!

Community Quilts

Our guild has so many talented and generous members. At each meeting we receive quilts to be given to deserving babies, children, and adults in our community. Recently we put out a request for help with flannel washing. The response was wonderful, and many more bolts of flannel are now washed and ready for layering with tops and batting.

At our first meeting in April, Thursday April 3rd, Meg Easter-Dawson from the Valley of the Moon Children's Home will arrive at 11:00 to give a short talk about the home. When she finishes, we will ask for volunteers to help with our parade of 100 quilts for the children there. We will walk the perimeter of the room and admire all of your beautiful and creative handiwork. Then we will load Meg's car with quilts and any donated suitcases. It is always a special day.

Coming up on May 1st is our second Quiltathon of the year. Watch for an email with details and plan to join us for a fun day of visiting while you work on donation quilts.

Many thanks to all who participate in this project!

 Pam Beebe & Anne Dondero

Community Quilt Sizes

Doll Quilts	For little girls and boys. WE collect these all year and donate during the holidays.
80" x 100"	For Wounded Warriors. We only donate a few of these large quilts.

Pointless Sisters

Pointless Sisters Art Quilt Group Exhibit Continues at the Occidental Center for the Arts

The Pointless Sisters art quilt exhibit Not Your Grandmother's Quilt continues at the Occidental Center for the Arts through April 27th. The exhibit features unique fiber art, recent group challenges Red and In the Style Of ... - quilts in the style of other artists - as well as other quilts, large and small. The gallery is open Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays from 11 am to 4 pm and during Occidental Center for the Arts events and by appointment. Location: 3850 Doris Murphy Court, Occidental. For information call 707-874-9392 or on the web at www.occidentalcenterforthearts.org

Hats off to Pointless Sisters Ann Hines and Ellindale Wells, their quilts were accepted into the EBHQ Voices in Cloth special exhibit which celebrated the Rosie the Riveter/WWII Home Front National Historical Park in Richmond. There will be an artists' reception at the Richmond Museum of History on April 5th from 2-4 p.m. where the quilts will be on exhibit through June 6th. The WWII quilts will also be displayed on line at the WWII Home Front website: <http://www.wiihomefrontquilts.com> Pointless Sister Jennie Alexich was publicity coordinator for the EBHQ exhibit as well as coordinator for the WWII challenge. Trudi Chamoff Hauptman has two pieces juried into the ARC Gallery in San Francisco, one in the on-line exhibit and one in the gallery itself. She will be awarded one of the juror's awards at the reception on May 3rd. Sharon Cahn will be exhibiting her wearable art at The Spring Fling on April 6th from 10-5 at the Rancho Solano Golf Course, 3250 Rancho Solano Parkway, Fairfield CA 94534.

An interest group of the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild, the Pointless Sisters Group shares their work, discusses new trends in art quilting technique, provides education programs and sponsors group challenges. Our next challenge, Holes, is due in July. At April's meeting we will make fantasy fish with Diana Roberts leading us.

We meet on the 4th Tuesday of the month at the Luther Burbank Art and Garden Center. Coffee from 9:30 – 10, meeting from 10 – noon followed by lunch and a monthly program. Visitors are welcome.

 Carroll Hirsch

Sew-A-Row

The second rounds of Sew-a-Rows are due at the next meeting (April 3rd). Please drop them off at the Sew-a-Row station in the back of the room. If you hand your packet to the next person, please let me know or note it on the duplicate sheet.

There are still plenty of spaces for people to sign up to add their own border or row. Check them out at the Sew-a-Row station. Please note that you don't need to sign up on the packets, you can sign up on the duplicate sheets Questions? Just see me.

Boutique & Raffle

Thank you everyone who called or emailed concerning Dwight's fall at 5 am on the 20th. He got out of bed and his legs gave out and he went to the floor. There was no way I could get him up. It took three firemen to pick him up and into a wheelchair. While they were here Dwight seemed disorientated so it was best not to leave him alone for the day. Tests nor Doctors show a reason for the problem so guess it's just age and having a worn out body.

Thank you, Joanie Bellinghausen for coming by at the last minute to get all the stuff from the Home and Garden Show, Mary Wood for setting up everything and being Betty for the day (Poor Lady!), and everyone else who pitched in to help with the Boutique and Raffle making it a good ($177) day.

Don't forget about the Healdsburg Quilt Show, April 12th. from 10 am to 4 pm. At 725 Grove St. Also, be sure to come by the boutique every meeting to say hi and check out all the STUFF we have. There is almost always one or two new items and we do not always advertise them.

A Happy Story

I was talking to the receptionist at Dr. Homberger's office, and she told me the doctor was running 30 minutes late. Kiddingly, I said I could make two more blocks for my quilt.

To make a long story short, she told me she had 19 year old twins who were the recipients of two of our quilts. The quilts are put away in their hope chests. She loved the quilts.

Opportunity Quilt

Ladies and Gents you only have one more meeting to purchase raffle tickets for "Vintage Friendship Garden". It will be raffled off on April 3rd towards the end of the meeting, which means you will have time to buy your tickets and put them in the barrel! Remember this supports the Guild and all our activities that we do. I want to thank everyone who worked the Sonoma County Spring Home and Garden Show and Tri-Guild Luncheon. You did marvelously!!

We have a new Chairman for the Opportunity Quilt Raffle Sales committee. She is a new member and you will get to know her as well as you did me!! I commend her for taking this on, and she still needs help from committee members to help organize the different shows that we attend. The next big volunteer push will be the Moonlight Quilt Guilds Show on June 7th & 8th. Please volunteer to help out for a few hours. This Committee relies on all the members' participation as it would be impossible for just a few dedicated individuals to take this on. (It's called Burn Out.)

Lastly---Thank you to everyone who volunteers to help sell raffle tickets at the different venues and a HUGE THANK YOU to all those who set-up and took down the quilt at all the shows and shop hops. Thank you Rhonda for selling raffle tickets at the membership table!! You are a sweetheart!!

Block of the Month

April - Kaleidoscope

The next chapter in "Good Foundations" will teach you to piece together two sections of a paper pieced block. There are only six pieces of fabric in this block. The trick will be to sew the two sections together so that the center points match and the diagonal seam stays aligned.

Make this block with 30's, 40's or 50's small print fabric. Middle pieces are pattern on white background. Corners are pattern on medium or dark background.

Enjoy!!

Dotty's Featherweight

ANOTHER NICE REMINDER OF DOTTY ZAGAR

Our dear friend, Founding Member, and Past President Dotty Zagar's Singer 221 Featherweight was donated to the Guild by Dotty's husband Hank and offered for Silent Auction at our meeting on March 20th. I was the lucky determined winner of Dotty's Featherweight and I couldn't be happier.

The next day, as I prepared to jot a thank you note to Dotty's husband Hank, I was sorry to see Sharon's email that Hank had passed away. Sharon provided me with Hank's daughter Diane's address, so I sent a condolence card and thank you note to Diane instead.

Dotty's machine had every single attachment you can imagine including 3 zipper feet! If you need one for your FW, let me know, I'm happy to share. Visiting the Twice Nice Shoppe booth at the EBHQ show, I purchased a flanged 1/4" foot, and I think we are good to go.

What is my new baby's name? Dotty, of course, and you will be seeing her at workshops now and again.

Wine Country Quilt Show

The Deadline is Looming!

The deadline date for quilt show entries is just around the corner. It is April 2nd for the Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County and April 3rd for Santa Rosa Quilt Guild and Petaluma Quilt Guild.

Please visit www.mqsc.org website and complete the form online, send your JPG photo to Quilt\_Photos@sonic.net identifying yourself, provide accurate measurements and name of the quilt in that email.

I will be at both meetings for MQSC and SRQG on their respective deadline dates to take photos and receive paper entries. If you have a problem or need additional help, PLEASE contact me, Joanne Thomas, 528-3559 or jthomas@sonic.net.

If you cannot finish your quilt by May 21st, please send me an email noting which entry(ies) will not be complete. The arrangers need time to fill in the holes before I begin my process of printing all of the documents necessary for take-in, labels, etc. Delivery of your quilt(s) is between 6 and 7 p.m. June 5th. That is a lot of time to finish your projects once you have entered them.

I ONLY HAVE 145 QUILTS, so please ladies, if you have a quilt that has not been shown before, please enter it. The total number of quilts per person is 6 - a combination of large and small, but not all large, please. The show should have a large variety of quilts and artists. Be part of a very positive experience that promotes our dear hobby. Let's NOT disappoint the public who loves to come to our quilt show.

Thank you again,

Joanne Thomas
