

President's Message

Beth's Quilt Club is the inspiration of Dr. James Foley in honor of his dear wife Beth, who was a long-time cherished member of Santa Rosa Quilt Guild and the Pointless Sisters. Dr. Foley chose to use the passing of his beloved companion as a positive outreach to the community by offering the students at Roseland University Preparatory High School an afternoon program that would give them the opportunity to learn how to sew.

He reached out to Beth's friends at SRQG to realize his vision. Genelle Voorhees eagerly offered to meet with Dr. Foley and took the lead in the creation of Beth's Quilt Club.

Genelle's dedication and organizational skills shone brightly. With the first meeting scheduled for early in October, Genelle and her team of volunteers were fingerprinted and given the required TB test. She approached John Furtado, owner and operator of Village Sewing Center in Santa Rosa, for assistance. John happily donated four sewing machines to the school for the Club's use and offered to service the machines as needed. The machines will be kept in storage at the school so they can be used again next year. With other donations, six machines were available for the students to use for the entire class. Fabric, thread, scissors, cutters, and all the essential supplies were gathered from personal stashes and community donations.

Diana Watson, Dr. Jim Foley, and Jessica Mullins-Thomas
with members of Beth's Quilt Club

Jessica Mullins-Thomas, a school advisor, offered to chaperone the weekly club meetings. Dr. Foley was always present, eagerly helping to set up and tear down the room for each meeting. Volunteers wore purple t-shirts emblazoned with "Beth's Quilt Club."

Besides Genelle, we are grateful for the other volunteers: Angie Frey, Lorna Fiori, Diana Watson, Jeanne Parent, Jan Nilsen, Laura Barrett, Rhonda Denny, Vicki David, and Elizabeth Marrs.

The Club was scheduled to meet every Thursday from 3:30 to 5:30, starting on October 6, 2016. The first meeting in the art room greeted the students with sewing machines on the tables and fabric and other supplies laid out nearby. Starting out with five enthusiastic students, the Club was able to provide a one-on-one tutelage. They covered their notebooks with fabric and learned how to make pillowcases, table runners, tote bags, and kaleidoscope blocks. More importantly, they learned sewing terminology, techniques, and how to sew on different machines.

At the end of the school year, Jasmine (pictured with her kaleidoscope blocks), Bmo, Rosalia (pictured with Genelle), Oxmar and Gio (all pictured with Dr. Foley, Diana Watson and Jessica Mullins-Thomas) were celebrated for their enthusiasm and curiosity with an all-day retreat on May 13, 2017. Each student was given their own sewing machine to take home with them. Thanks to Rhonda Denny, Sharon Fry, Judy Dieter, and Genelle Voorhees for their generous donation of machines for the students. Tables were laid out with yards and yards of fabric for them to rummage through and take as much as they liked. They were also given a basket filled with supplies. Since many of the students were sophomores last year, most plan to return next year to learn even more. Even though there may be returning students, there will still be room in the classes for younger students to begin and continue the learning process.

Genelle shares, "I loved every minute of BQC, from planning to making it a reality. The students are so upbeat and appreciative, and my volunteers and support team are the best! It has been a wonderful experience and I'm looking forward to the next school year."

Rhonda happily wrote of one of the students, "Rosalia wound two bobbins and threaded her new Viking. She tested different stitches, including embroidery, and made stitch length changes. We briefly went through the manual. Her smile and excitement made me applaud her success and encourage her by saying, 'You're sewing with the big girls now.' She was joyful and said, 'Now I can sew through the summer!' I gave her my number and told her to feel free to call."

Genelle Voorhees and Rosalia

Jasmine and her quilt top.

Dr. Foley wrote to Genelle, "I want to thank the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild for their support of Beth's Quilt Club (BQC). It is less than a year since I reached out to the guild in an effort to make the club a reality. Due to the guidance and boundless energy of Genelle Voorhees, the consistent participation of Diana Watson and numerous guild members, the club is an incredible success. ... The students responded as if it were Christmas morning. It was heartwarming to see the gratitude of the students and their family members.

"I believe that BQC has sparked an interest which may result in life long quilters. I know that the bonding of student and quilt club mentor was a wonderful and enriching experience for both the mentor and the student. Again, I want to express the gratitude of the Foley Family to the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild for helping perpetuate the memory of Beth as a dedicated quilter and caring educator."

Our deepest thanks go to Dr. James Foley for giving us this opportunity to educate young and eager students with our love of quilting. Beth Foley has left a poignant legacy that has been passed on to a new generation and, not only her memory, but also the art of creating with fabric, will be carried on with "Beth's Quilt Club."

LAURA FOGG

June 15 & 16, 2017

June 15 Program

“Landscapes”

Laura has been a mural painter and seamstress for many years, and has recently begun to combine the two media and go in a whole new direction — art quilting. She uses a “painterly” collage style in her art, with landscapes as her primary focus. Much of her inspiration comes from the beauty she enjoys on a daily basis in Mendocino County.

Laura’s work has been shown both locally and nationally. Many pieces have been juried into major shows, and a number have been prizewinners. Her work has been published in calendars, magazines, and books. She lectures and teaches art quilting classes throughout Northern California. For the last 30 years, Laura has been teaching blind people how to get around with a white cane. Maybe it is this all-day focus on lack of sight that makes the world such a visual treat for her. Everything in her landscapes is cut freehand and allowed to move around as she machine appliques pieces onto the layers below. She works fast as a means of achieving a more dynamic outcome.

June 16 Workshop

“Quilted Landscape Collage”

Laura Fogg’s workshop on Friday, June 16, 2017 will help you discover the “artist within” as you play with the fabrics of your choice to create a small (2’ by 3’) landscape collage wall quilt. Expect this to be a fun, creative, interactive and successful experience. Each student will start with a photo of a place that inspires them (possibly a scene from Emandal) and create a freehand collage quilt which can be sewn together in or out of class by hand or with a sewing machine. There are no patterns or rules in this class...it’s a chance to play and explore your unique artistic eye with the support of both the instructor and your classmates. Her workshop is designed for all levels of quilters!

APRIL SPROULE

July 20 & 21, 2017

July 20 Program

“Transition From Technician to Artist”

Join us on July 20th to learn about April Sproule. April is an artist whose medium is textiles. She has a great love of design and the ways that it can be used to enrich and embellish our lives. Initially trained in fashion design, she eventually began creating artwork with the skills she had mastered. In recent years, she has been developing a collection of reproducible designs for the purpose of creating layered imagery and engineered prints for fiber art and mixed media applications. She has been a full time studio artist for the past twenty years.

April stated, “Creating art allows me total freedom: the freedom to be optimistic about the outcome of my work as I am flooded with fresh ideas and insights. There are no boundaries or limitations, and every challenge presents an opportunity for me to find a new solution.”

In her lecture, April will discuss how she evolved over the years from an entirely left-brained analytical perfectionist in her art work to a person who has learned to work in an entirely different manner. Now able to work from her heart with an uninhibited and enlightened outlook, she will share valuable tips on how to find your own creative voice and work through those bothersome creative blocks that we all encounter. She will share many of her quilts and fiber art pieces and reflect on how monumental the pieces were in her artistic development and transformation.

July 21 Workshop

“Fabric Painting With Stencils”

July’s workshop will be Fabric Painting with Stencils conducted by April Sproule.

Stencils have been around for centuries, and they remain one of the easiest and most effective ways to apply imagery to fabrics. In class, we will be using a unique collection of stencils April has developed that are incredibly simple to use. The Textile Design Stencils are perfectly suited for a wide variety of fiber art applications such as quilting projects, wearable art, and home décor.

The paints are water-based and completely washable.

Community Quilts

Summer time is coming and maybe that will give you extra time for quilting. I will soon be donating some large quilts (50x65) to the emancipated youth. These are kids ageing out of foster care and it helps them settle into the adult world. This is a great place to donate a larger quilt that you have made. We also donate a lot of 40x60 quilts to seniors, rape survivors, foster kids and family services. Your donations really do mean a lot to many people in the community.

I hope you have a safe, healthy summer.

Thank you to all who so generously participate in making quilts for our community!

 Nancy Stedman & Janet Tonkin

Boutique and Raffle

A very special thank you to all of you who took thread catcher kits home to sew for the boutique—you did a fabulous job, and about 60 were returned the next meeting and then several dozen later. We are in good shape for the quilt show. Hopefully we will have to start all over after the show.

Thank you, Mary Wood and Diana Roberts for stepping in on the 19th to fill in for me as I needed to be at the hospital with Dwight. Thank you also for all the well wishes and prayers. They worked as he was released from the hospital on Saturday and the Doctors were very nervous about how to treat something they could not even decide on to diagnose. Very strong antibiotics and major doses of steroids pulled him through, and today he feels pretty good.

The Raffle had a very good day and I am sure that Chris did a great job in selling tickets for the baskets, as Cyndi and Susan put together some interesting baskets as usual.

Thank you again to everyone for supporting the raffle and boutique and helping to keep our Guild a wonderful place to gather and share our quilting passions.

Technique Sharing Workshops

These workshops are offered free each month to our members. We all have skills and tricks to share and sometimes new ideas we bring from workshops or quilt shows. Here are some details for the next TSW.

June 15, 2017

Our talented panel will show you how to make computer printed labels, put pictures on your labels or write the story of the quilt. You can iron them on, sew them on or make embroidered labels. Lots of ways to do them, so make sure all your quilts get a name and a label. If you get stuck on how to do labels...be sure and come to this workshop.

Be sure to check the website as well for sample pictures of some labels and handouts.

Please check the calendar for other upcoming TSWs and more details will follow in the upcoming newsletters.

Gift Vouchers Now Available

Would you like to show a little appreciation to someone in the guild? We now have Gift Vouchers which can be purchased for any dollar amount you choose. The Voucher may be used for any guild activity or in the Boutique. It works just like a gift certificate, you buy it, you give it, and they spend it!

It can be used for Bus Trips, Workshops, Silent Auction, Boutique, Opportunity Quilt tickets, Membership Dues, etc. Anywhere you spend money at the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild the Voucher will be accepted.

The voucher expires one year after date of purchase, so if you are the lucky recipient of one of these vouchers, please keep a close eye on the date. Also, keep in mind that we do not give "change" if what you purchase is less than the voucher amount so spend it wisely.

The vouchers can be purchased from the Treasurer at any guild meeting. If you would like to send an anonymous gift to anyone just see the Treasurer and your secret will be safe forever!

Just one more step into the age of technology.

Sew-A-Row

Summer is a time of picnics, family vacations, hikes, and of course quilting! It is easy to put aside our quilt projects in the summer because we get busy with outdoor activities. BUT we all have time to add a row to a Sew-A-Row, or a border to a medallion. It is a quick way to participate in a joint guild activity and MAYBE win a whole quilt top at the end of the year. June 1st will be a big orphan adoption day, and for our members who step up to take an orphan home, I will have a sweet reward. Now that's what I call a WIN WIN!

Thank you again, for the enthusiastic participation. It has been very fun to see our progress with this project.

Fair Liaison

The dates for the Sonoma County Fair this year are August 3 through August 13. The theme is "HOLIDAZE AT THE SONOMA COUNTY FAIR."

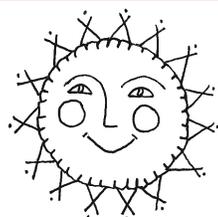

Fridays are Senior Days (get in free) for those 60 and older.

Entries for exhibitors close on June 16 or June 30 online. There is a $2.00 fee per entry. You will receive a one-day free pass to the fair as an exhibitor. We are again invited to demonstrate quilting at the fair. You can either hand quilt or use one of the two machines provided. It's a fun way to make new quilting friends and introduce the public to our passion. You will also receive a pass to the fair for each three hour shift you cover. Quilts, hanging from the ceiling and on the walls, liven up the craft hall beautifully.

Please consider entering your quilts and signing up for demonstrations. You won't regret it.

UFO Challenge

Twenty-three valiant quilters put up their $5 and said "I will finish this UFO by September."

"How's it going?" one might ask. Who knows? I am assuming that we are all sewing, sewing, sewing in order to meet that September deadline to be able to proudly hold up the completed project and say "I did it, it is finally finished!"; to retrieve the $5, be rewarded with a fat quarter and the ever delightful chocolate.

If you have any questions, like "What did I say I'd complete?" feel free to email me.

Ride Sharing

Dear SRQG Membership, as time passes we sometimes realize that it is probably not a good idea to drive any more. For me, it happened almost ten years ago. I realized that I had not driven in some time - years actually - because I could no longer depress the brake pedal to stop the car. I traded my driver's license for a California Identification Card, which looks exactly like my Drivers License - up to and including the individual identifying numbers. At first, I worried. It felt weird. But over time, it became a relief. It was dangerous for me to drive. Santa Rosa is much safer with me out from behind the wheel.

I have asked the board if we could test the waters to see if anyone would like to volunteer transportation for those who no longer drive. I want the initial contacts to go through me, hopefully pairing people in nearby neighborhoods, once connected I leave you to yourselves to make arrangements. If you can provide a ride, call or write me with your specifics and I will set up a ride share. Likewise, let me know if you would benefit from a ride. No one should ever miss a meeting because of transportation.
