

President's Message

Gratitude.

Generosity.

Kindness.

Reviewing some of my previous columns for "Stitch'n Times," the feelings evoked by those three words dominate the best attributes of the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild.

Just like the fabrics in our beloved patchwork quilts, we are each unique individuals who provide an irreplaceable contribution that creates a whole cloth.

A few of us are the "Kaffe Fassett's" of the guild – sunny and bold, bringing brightness and texture to the mix.

Some of us are the "reproductions" – providing the stability of tradition.

Some are the "moderns" – offering a new way of putting it all together.

Some of us are "homespun" – interweaving lights and darks, humor, and thoughtfulness.

Some are the "batiks" – lending a touch of the exotic, and always a promise of color.

Some of us are "30s pastels" – fostering the memories of days past but keeping the group forever young.

Some are "novelties" – always coming up with surprising solutions.

Many of us are the "neutrals" – the quiet presence, the contrasting background that is essential to setting off the rest of the pattern.

Most of us are a combination of more than one of the above. Whatever description you might identify as you, know that without you, we would not have that "whole cloth" we know and love as the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild.

Nor would we be able to extend to the Sonoma County community the gratitude, generosity, and kindness that can be found in all we create.

Summer is here already! I hope you enjoyed the Wine Country Quilt Show presented by the Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County, and have your entries ready for the Sonoma County Fair. Remember you must submit your application on-line by June 30th.

Our speaker on June 21 is Mel Beach <http://melbeachquilts.com/> who will also be conducting a workshop on her "Magnificent Mandala" – a must for those of us who love to get lost in free-motion quilting.

Margo Pitter (No Measure Binding Matchup) and Genelle Voorhees (Bias Binding) will help you resolve all your binding challenges with their Technique Sharing Workshop, also on June 21st.

Next month I'll share with you tales of my travels to the wilds of Iowa, especially our visit to Winterset, home of the Bridges of Madison County, Fons and Porter, and the Iowa Quilt Museum. I'll also be going to the fascinating Amana Colonies which hosts two of my very favorite quilt shops. Better leave the credit card at home!

Stay cool!

Library News

On May 23 I telephoned to extend our library's subscriptions to MODERN QUILTS UNLIMITED and MACHINE QUILTING UNLIMITED and was sad to hear that later that very day an announcement was being made that both magazines would no longer be published.

The following is a list of the books that came into our possession since our last newsletter. For images of the covers and more detailed descriptions of the items, just click on LIBRARY on our website www.santarosaquiltguild.org Linda Hooper has written easy-to-understand directions about how to utilize the library site. To locate her instructions, click on the underlined "here" in the second paragraph at the top of the library page. Let me know if you would like guidance with the site and we'll sit down at the Library's laptop computer after a meeting. A hint: if you are looking for an author, remember to type in the last name first, and if you are searching for a book title, type in the first "important" word leaving the a, an, and the's 'til the end.

Want to know what our Go! Baby Accuquilt cutting system is all about? Type in Go! in the Search box at the top of our website's Library page and learn not only what it is, what it does, but also find a list of our dies. You can also find all of our Go! "toys" listed at the bottom of the Library's Home Page on our website. Our thanks to guild member Mary Reder for sharing her Go! Baby cutting machine with us. Also, a thank you to Linda Silva for giving our guild the next-larger size of cutter and many dies that she won in a raffle. Reserve the machines and dies just like a library book. Yes – we give (free) lessons!

Our brand new library items:

EXPLORE WALKING FOOT QUILTING WITH LEAH DAY by Leah Day – Packed with valuable tips - Requested by Mary Ann Hayre

EAST-MEETS-WEST QUILTS – EXPLORE IMPROV WITH JAPANESE-INSPIRED DESIGNS by Patricia Belyea – Includes five rules, with the fifth rule being "break any rule you like" – Includes interesting cultural history - Requested by Pat Kearns

LITTLE LONE STAR QUILTS by Lorraine Olsen – Sew perfect points with her paper-piecing technique - Donated and signed by our April 19, 2018, speaker

ALL STAR QUILTS by Eleanor Burns – Quilt in a Day – a different approach to the very difficult Feathered Star pattern – with no Y-seams! A great donation for our library

Library News continued

BLOCK – SPRING – VOLUME 5, ISSUE 2 – by Jenny Doan of the Missouri Star Quilt Company – a magazine that I treat like a book and file under BLOCKS – thanks again and again to Jan Andrews for donating this entire collection to our library

Be sure to let me know if you find an item that our library "needs" (books, DVDs, and Go! Baby dies, magazines).

Have you pawed through the ever-growing box of rulers, templates, and stencils that have been donated to our library for members to check out?

Need a fabric pen to sign a block? Sharon 'the Librarian' will loan her personal collection during meetings. Tip: Iron a piece of freezer paper to the back of the area before signing so the fabric stays taut.

And don't forget that we have magazine subscriptions to:

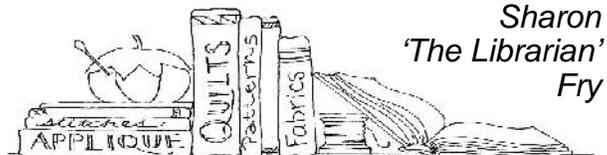

FONS AND PORTER'S LOVE OF QUILTING, AMERICAN QUILTER, QUILTMAKER, QUILTING ARTS MAGAZINE, and MODERNE (from Quiltmania).

We also have many past issues of: MACHINE QUILTING UNLIMITED, MODERN QUILTS UNLIMITED, PRIMITIVE QUILTS AND PROJECTS, QUILT LIFE (Alex Anderson and Ricky Tims, MINIATURE QUILTS, Japanese magazines, QUILTMANIA (European), AND QUILTERS NEWSLETTER (all of the issues).

Wearing your nametag is a huge help to everyone. This is an excellent way for us to get to put names and faces together.

Check out as many of our more than 3,305 books, DVDs, and CDs, plus magazines, (and Go! Baby equipment as you wish) ~- just remember to return them to the very next meeting, pretty please, as there are so many members in the guild who also wish to use the items.

Our library needs many, many volunteers. You do not need to formally sign-up to help – we'll take whatever time you can spare before or after any meeting. If you do not like the job you are given, don't be shy – let us know what you would rather do. I can never thank everyone enough for their assistance and support with making our library the best in the entire world!

Welcome Committee

Welcome Committee Presents:
Did you know?

...that when one volunteers to be a Committee Chair they are given a pink binder with a complete job description? This Job Description Binder also comes with a team of Santa Rosa Quilt Guild members to assist with any of your questions and needs. This binder is a living document and updated every year. Everything you need to know is accessible via the binder from the "Index of Binder Contents" to "How do I submit an article to the Newsletter?" The Guild Calendar - on page one - gives dated material at a glance for planning. Meanwhile, the current budget and instructions for Reimbursements, Direct Pay Request, and Deposit Slips per the Treasurer allows you to see the resources available for your committee. All you need bring is your enthusiasm and "can-do" spirit. The rewards are amazing; being of service first and foremost, friendships made, goodwill towards others and understanding are priceless.

On Mentoring

Sometime early this year we received a request from a high school student who was looking for a mentor to help her with an art project.

When I met Emma Kapi'olani Hughes early in March she told me she was in an advanced art program at Santa Rosa High School and she was to do a project that challenged her to do something she had never done before. She chose to make a quilt. Actually, she wanted to make a bed quilt and a landscape quilt by her final in May. At that meeting she had several books she had checked out from the library and was already researching how to make a quilt. She had a sewing machine that her grandmother had given her (although she had not used it) and was ready to go having little idea what might be involved.

Well, after some detailed (and realistic) discussion we settled on making a small quilt for a child in her extended family. I suggested she might want to use pre-cut strips for her first quilt and showed her some patterns and ideas for using color. She got right on the internet and found a pattern for free that she liked as well as a strip set of bright colors she thought the young boy would like.

At our next meeting I brought her some supplies (cutting mat, iron and pad for piecing). She had already purchased her rotary cutter and had other essential supplies. Chris Nolen donated "The Freshman Year" quilt book by Harriet Hargrave, which she planned to read cover to cover. We talked about how to read patterns, and how to go about the process of making the quilt. We practiced a little on her machine and it worked fine.....both for straight stitch and free motion. As with most young people she is very adept at using the internet and You Tube for information so she did not need much detailed help.

The next time I met with Emma she had her quilt finished. This is one very independent young lady, and very focused. Her mother told me her first words were "Emma Do." She loves all kinds of art and is accomplished at crochet, making jewelry, recycling and repurposing items, decoupage, painting, and I am sure there are others. She showed me some of her crafts and creations and they were impressive.

She is very excited that she will be spending a month this summer at NYU in New York in a special art program. She was a delight to work with and

Sew-A-Row

Thanks to all who have adopted rows. Several of you have been enthusiastic and done more than one sew a row. We have a record number of 28 Sew-a-Rows this year. Each and everyone of the rows are unique and beautifully sewn. Thanks for your enthusiasm and creativity!

The following two rows are looking for someone to add their touch:

Row Houses
Town and Country

Take a look on our web page <http://www.santarosaquiltguild.org/sewarow.php>

Community Quilts

Summer time is coming and maybe that will give you extra time for quilting. We can use some large quilts (55x65) for the emancipated youth. We also donate a lot of 40x60 quilts to seniors, rape survivors, foster kids, and family services. The NICU size go to the hospitals and public health. Your donations really do mean a lot to many people in the community. In the last four months we have had two successful Quilthathons and two successful Fifth Thursdays. Thank you for your continued support.

We hope you have a safe, healthy summer.

Thank you to all who so generously participate in making quilts for our community!

Pam Beebe, Laura Barrett,
Nancy Stedman & Janet Tonkin

COMMUNITY QUILT SIZES

If you are making donation quilts on your own, these are the approximate sizes most needed.

32" x 40" Baby Quilts	For Sutter & Memorial NICUs, Public Health nursing, & teen moms. We provide kits for making the tops, or you may use your own fabrics.
40" x 60"	For Valley of the Moon and other organizations serving children in need. Please use bright colors for young children or fabrics that will appeal to teenagers.
50" x 65"	For 18 year olds aging out of the Foster Care system and for women residing at the YWCA Safe House.
40" x 60"	Lap quilts for adults. Given to Secret Santa, women being served by Verity, seniors in local convalescent hospitals, & others.
Doll Quilts	For little girls & boys. We collect them throughout the year and donate during the holidays.

Thank you to all who are involved with this important outreach project!

Sewing Room Sale

There is still time to sign up !

July 5th SEWING ROOM SALE

What about those extra sewing related items such as rulers, patterns, templates, bins, even UFO's?

Now is the time to rid yourself of clutter and make some cash!

Set up before the meeting, then resume selling after the meeting until 2:00 p.m.

More details are on the Sewing Room Sale forms, get yours in ASAP!

Forms may be obtained from the SRQG website under "Download Forms" on the left margin. Scroll down to "Sewing Room Sale" and below it click "here to download" and print the form.

Of course you can get a form from me during the SRQG meetings.

Thank You

Joy McGoran

Meals on Wheels Project

We have 26 completed placements, and counting. You can make your own design, shape and size placemat, the sky is the limit! It is a wonderful way to use up those orphan blocks and add your imagination.

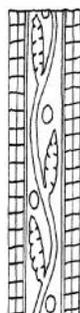

There are many kits available if you prefer to sew without much fuss. Pick them up and turn them in to me at any meeting. Deadline is November 1st.

THANK YOU!

Wine Country Quilt Show

2018 Wine Country Quilt Show Thanks You !!

Thank you to all the participants in our 2018 show. We can't do it with out you!

We really appreciate all the entries & volunteers From SRQG. We hope your boutique was profitable for you. Next year we would like to feature your Fire Challenge in a special exhibit.

Here's to our Volunteers, all 356 shifts!!!, Quilt Makers, Hospitality & Potluck suppliers, Friends and Family.

I hope you all enjoyed the Show!!!

Volunteer!

We have opportunities everywhere, and it's a great way to make new friends, and help our guild!

Sonoma County Fair

The Sonoma County Fair runs from August 2nd through August 12th. The theme this year is "Salute to Heroes." You can pick up an Exhibitor's Guidebook at our guild meetings, at any Sonoma County library or at the Fair office at the fairgrounds. Entries are accepted only online and close June 30th. There is a $2.00 entry fee per quilt. You will receive one free admission pass when you deliver your quilts on July 16th, 12:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Santa Rosa Quilt Guild awards the Best Hand Quilted quilt with a Rosette and $50.00. We also give a $25.00 Award and Rosette to the Best Use of Color and Design quilt in the Youth Home Arts Department. If you know a young quilter, you should encourage him or her to enter. There is a Quilt Square Challenge, finished size 12.5" X 12.5" with the theme, "Salute to Heroes."

Each year at the fair, quilters are invited to demonstrate their art along with needle workers, spinners, weavers and hookers (rugs that is!!). There are two three-hour shifts, for two quilters each, every day. A free pass to the fair is awarded to each participant. It's really a fun experience. Two machines are provided and there will be baby quilt kits to sew for the neonatal intensive care units in Sonoma County. Or you can bring your own project to work on. Sign up with a friend or make a new quilting buddy. The room is filled with crafts to explore and the quilts hanging from the walls and rafters make a wonderful environment in which to show off our craft to the public. The sign-up sheet will be at all meetings between now and the end of the fair.

Friendship Blocks

We have three wildly popular Friendship Blocks that are nearing completion. This would be a great time to make your very own Friendship Block request. If you have made at least three Friendship Blocks for other members this is your chance!

If interested, contact Janice Juul for help or more information. Be sure to check out the Friendship Block page on our SRQG website for ideas.

Be a Friend,

 Janice Juul

Technique Sharing Workshops

These are the upcoming technique sharing workshops in the next couple of months. These workshops take place after lunch on dates listed below. Our members share their skills and insights. We have a very talented group of sewers and quilters so be sure to take advantage of them.

June 21, 2018

NO MEASURE BINDING with Margo Pitter

BIAS BINDING with Genelle Vorhees

Come and see how simple it can be to match up bindings perfectly without measuring. You will never have to struggle with getting those edges to be exact again.

Genelle will also show us how she makes her bias bindings. These are great for impact and if you want to do scalloped edges or other non-straight borders.

July 19, 2018

STORING QUILTS & MAKING QUILT BAGS

with Janice Juul

Come and learn how to keep those quilts you have worked so hard on properly stored and kept in quilt bags free of dust. These can be made quickly of any fabric and labeled to keep track of "who's in the bag."

August 2, 2018

ZENTANGLE® with Betsy Smith

Ever wonder what these crazy and beautiful designs are and how they might apply to quilting? Well, Betsy will show you how to do them (she will bring supplies) and some ideas of how to apply them to quilting. You won't want to miss this one as it will be lots of fun.

2018 Guild Challenge

We had an excellent turnout at the gathering of quilters who are interested in participating in this year's challenge. Quilters shared many varied ideas, and some fiery fabrics were shared too. There was even one completed piece done in the modern style! Everyone is invited to participate! You did not have to come to that first meeting.

2018 SRQG Quilt Challenge

Sonoma Strong Wildfires, Resilience, and Recovery

This year's challenge is to create a quilt related to any aspect of the October wildfires.

The due date is at the Guild meeting on Thursday, August 2nd

There is still plenty of time to join in!

MEETINGS AND MEMBERSHIP

The Santa Rosa Quilt Guild meets the first and third Thursdays of each month (in December only one meeting is held on the first Thursday) at 10:00 a.m. at the Scottish Rite / Masonic Lodge in Santa Rosa, 600 Acacia Lane, between Mission Boulevard and Middle Rincon Road on Highway 12 east of Santa Rosa.

Membership dues are $35 per year. The calendar year is January to December; new member's dues are prorated. Regular meetings, special programs, use of the extensive library and special discounts from some affiliates are benefits of membership. For More information or to send a check for dues email:

Meeting Etiquette

- ◆ Please avoid chit-chat while someone is speaking to the group.
- ◆ Please peruse the Silent Auction & Boutique before or after the meeting--not during the meeting.
- ◆ Please, do not browse the speaker's sales table during the meeting.
- ◆ Please set your cell phone to silent mode or turn it off.
- ◆ At Speaker Meetings, please move to the center of the rows and eliminate empty seats, so late-comers will be able to find a seat and not disturb the group.

Thank You Sew Much!
