Quilt Related Announcements

Jim noted that the California Sesquicentennial Quilt will be on display at the California Museum on Sunday, May 18, 2014, from 12:00 pm to 4:30 pm. Quilt appraisals will also be available for $10 at the event. Several members, past and present, worked on this quilt.

Committee Reports

TSW: Phyllis Gallaway reported that next meeting's TSW will feature Elaine Tucker demonstrating how to use Tsukineko inks on quilts. June 5th will be Linda Hooper's Mystery Quilt, and June 19th will feature Lorna Fiori doing a demonstration on "Fidget Aprons."

Programs and Workshops 2015: Phyllis polled group interest in several workshop topics.

Sonoma County Fair: Pam McVey noted that Fair entry books are available at the Membership Table, and that paper entries are due on June 7th, but online entries can be made through June 30th. A new division this year is a 12 ½" Quilt Square Challenge with three themes—1960's, Elvis, and California State Parks.

Programs & Workshops: Genelle Voorhees announced that the Jenny Lyon workshop for May is full with a waiting list of 10 people. Michelle Peerson in June still has openings, and she urged members to sign up soon. Harriet Hargrave will be here in July and signups are now open.

Block of the Month: Jim Jensen drew winners for the 55 Kaleidoscope blocks, Mary Nurmi and Jeanne Parent.

Library: Sharon Fry presented several new magazines and books.
