- Genelle Voorhees explained the donation program she is involved with as a retiree from PG&E. She donates $25 from her retirement pay each month (to the non profit of her choice – this year SRQG) and PG&E matches her donations. She encouraged members to check with the companies they work/worked for and see if they have a similar program.
- A woman donated her cross stitch stash to the Guild. It amounts to a car load of items and those items are in the hallway for sale. Funds will go to the library.
- Jim Jensen explained that we have an opportunity to staff the phones for a KRCB fund drive, perhaps in October. Details will follow.
- Judy Mathieson – reviewed details re entering and picking up quilts for the Moonlighters show. You must have written permission to enter or pick up a quilt if it is not yours so have a letter with you. Linda Morand is the featured speaker.
