

Santa Rosa Quilt Guild

Business Meeting

Thursday October 5, 2016

Vice President Linda Hooper called the meeting to order promptly at 10:00 AM

Quilt Related Announcements:

There will no boutique sales at guild meetings for the rest of this year. See Betty Upchurch if you have need of items from the boutique.

There are 32 quilts on display at the Rincon Valley Library. They are viewable during library business hours thru mid-November.

Genelle Voorhees shared that the Beth Foley Sewing classes will be starting today at Roseland Prep High School.

PIQF Bus - pick up will be at 7:15 under the highway overpass by the Veterans Memorial Building on Thursday Oct 13th.

Old Business: None

Committee Reports:

Opportunity Quilt: Pam McVey - Has signup sheets for 3 hour shifts to sell tickets at the Broadway Quilt Shop next weekend during the Shop Hop.

Programs: Jan Nilsen – October program will be a presentation on creative border and the Oct workshop is a beautiful Kaleidoscope quilt. The November program will be presented by Karen Combs with a workshop on Friday of her Quilted Illusions. There are spots available in both these workshops. See the website for more specific details and supply lists.

Sew-A-Row: Genelle Voorhees - shared a few remaining quilts that are still available to add a row or your personal touch. Please see Genelle to take one home today.

Friendship Blocks: Cheryl Dudley - Shared a few blocks turned in today for Views of Sonoma County, Scenes of San Francisco, and Halloween Houses. Check out the website for these creative submissions.

Block-of- the- Month: Diana Roberts – Diana was not available this week and we will be draw at the next meeting. Betty Upchurch will collect the blocks turned in today.

Library: Sharon Fry - new periodicals were shared and Sharon encouraged everyone to check for items on silent auction tables and for items you may have won at previous meetings.

TWS: Linda Gilbert (via Sharon Fry) There will be a presentation by Toni Anderson who will share a discussion on Quilt Journaling.

Community Quilts: Laura Barrett and Janice Tonkin - Introduced our work stations and station hostesses. Let's get QUILTING!

Final Announcements None

Name Tag drawing winners were Linda Emis and Janet Tonkin. Congratulations.

Show and Tell

Meeting adjourned at 10:28 and the last quiltathon of the year continued.

Submitted by

Carole Behlke, Secretary.