President's Message

Our next Quiltathon on May 4 is a great opportunity for the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild community to share our skills and creativity with Sonoma County's underserved population. Not only do we make quilts for hospitalized infants, distressed children, and institutionalized seniors, but we also enjoy spending more time to get to know each other better, to learn new skills and to practice our craft ... and to eat pizza (many thanks to Carolle LeMonnier and her hospitality staff.) Bringing your machine to the Quiltathon and working on small quilts allows you to refine your sewing expertise without having to worry about the outcome being show quality. It doesn't matter if the finished product isn't absolutely perfect; the quilt you give to one who is in need will be loved and will let them feel that they are loved.

Most of the time, we never know who receives our donations. We don't meet the kids at Valley of the Moon Children's Center; we can't visit the babies in the Neonatal Intensive Care Units; we can't connect with the elderly woman who has to share a room with three others in the nursing home. They will be forever faceless for us, but we freely give of our talent and treasure without any expectation of ever being acknowledged.

You may not be aware that there is also a "mini-group" of SRQG members who gather outside of our regular meetings to create items specifically for veterans. The group was started by Lavella Cassinelli and Mirna Estes, and includes Karen Boscolo, Leslie Ary, Joyce Wood, Rose Marie Lara and new members, Leora Bennallack and Peggy Sue Buckelew. Last year they made 288 quilts and countless hats and scarves for clients of the Veterans Clinic.

Lavella recently gave me some photos to share with you of the veterans who are so grateful for our small tokens of appreciation for their service.

I gratefully relinquish the space that I usually take up in this message to share with you some of the faces of those we serve.

Wishing you all a Happy Mother's Day!

MARCIA HARMENING May 18 & 19, 2017

May 18 Program

“A Quilter’s Journey”

May’s program will feature Marcia Harmening, the owner and designer for Happy Stash Quilts. Marcia is a quilt designer, author, and a contributor to McCall’s Quilting. Marcia’s lap quilt, “Blown Away,” is featured in the September/October 2016 issue of McCall’s Quilting magazine.

Marcia fell in love with quilting 15 years ago as a means of staving off insanity during the long, dark Alaska winters. She found that colorful fabric combined with colorful friendships is, indeed, the perfect solution for surviving the snowy, monochromatic season. Marcia enjoys teaching on a regular basis and editing quilt books for Brenda Henning of Bear Paw Productions. She began publishing her own patterns in 2008. In 2010, after 23 years in Alaska, she and her husband and their three children relocated to Reno, Nevada, where they are soaking in an unbelievable abundance of sunshine.

May 19 Workshop

“Spring Into Christmas” or “Happy Flowers”

Participants will now have the choice of one of two projects! There is very little prep workshop, too! So sign up now for either Spring into Christmas or Happy Flowers! Supply lists for participants will be emailed or snail mailed. This workshop should prove to be a fun and exciting day! The cost of the workshop is $40 which includes the pattern. Remember a check or cash guarantees a spot in the workshop!

LAURA FOGG June 15 & 16, 2017

June 15 Program

“Landscapes”

Laura has been a mural painter and seamstress for many years, and has recently begun to combine the two media and go in a whole new direction — art quilting. She uses a “painterly” collage style in her art, with landscapes as her primary focus. Much of her inspiration comes from the beauty she enjoys on a daily basis in Mendocino County.

Laura’s work has been shown both locally and nationally. Many pieces have been juried into major shows, and a number have been prizewinners. Her work has been published in calendars, magazines, and books. She lectures and teaches art quilting classes throughout Northern California. For the last 30 years, Laura has been teaching blind people how to get around with a white cane. Maybe it is this all-day focus on lack of sight that makes the world such a visual treat for her. Everything in her landscapes is cut freehand and allowed to move around as she machine appliques pieces onto the layers below. She works fast as a means of achieving a more dynamic outcome.

June 16 Workshop

“Quilted Landscape Collage”

Laura Fogg’s workshop on Friday, June 16, 2017 will help you discover the “artist within” as you play with the fabrics of your choice to create a small (2’ by 3’) landscape collage wall quilt. Expect this to be a fun, creative, interactive and successful experience. Each student will start with a photo of a place that inspires them (possibly a scene from Emandal) and create a freehand collage quilt which can be sewn together in or out of class by hand or with a sewing machine. There are no patterns or rules in this class...it’s a chance to play and explore your unique artistic eye with the support of both the instructor and your classmates. Her workshop is designed for all levels of quilters!

Let me know if you would like guidance with the site and we'll sit down at the Library's laptop computer after a meeting. A hint: if you are looking for an author, remember to type in the last name first, and if you are searching for a book title, type in the first "important" word leaving the a, an, and the's 'til the end.

Want to know what our Go! Baby Accuquilt cutting system is all about? Type in Go! Our thanks to guild member Mary Reder for sharing her cutting machine with us. Reserve the machine and dies just like a library book. Yes – we give lessons!

Have you pawed through the ever-growing box of rulers, templates, and stencils that have been donated to our library for members to check out? Many thanks to Carole Behlke for organizing these for us (see the list of items on our blog).

And don't forget that we have magazine subscriptions to:

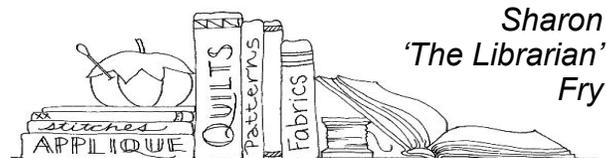

FONS AND PORTER'S LOVE OF QUILTING, MACHINE QUILTING UNLIMITED, AMERICAN QUILTER, QUILTMAKER, MODERN QUILTS UNLIMITED, QUILTING ARTS MAGAZINE, and MODERNE (from Quiltmania).

We also have many past issues of: QUILT LIFE (Alex Anderson and Ricky Tims), MINIA-TURE QUILTS, Japanese magazines, QUILTMANIA (European), AND QUILTERS NEWSLETTER (all of the issues since the very beginning until October 2016 when, sadly, they quit publishing).

Wearing your nametag is a huge help to everyone. This is an excellent way for us to get to put names and faces together.

Check out as many of our more than 3,299 books, DVDs, and CDs, plus magazines, (and Go! Baby equipment as you wish) ~~ just remember to return them to the very next meeting, pretty please, as there are so many members in the guild who also wish to use the items.

Our library needs many, many volunteers. You do not need to formally sign-up to help – we'll take whatever time you can spare before or after any meeting. If you do not like the job you are given, don't be shy – let us know what you would rather do. I can never thank everyone enough for their assistance and support with making our library the best in the entire world!

Quiltathon

Thursday May 4th from 9:00 to 2:30 at our usual meeting place. At 10:00 we will break for a short business meeting. The rest of the day will be spent sewing and visiting. The dedicated kitchen crew will provide PIZZA. If your birthday is in May or November please bring some salad or dessert to share.

If you can, bring your sewing machine to do quilting. Don't forget to bring your walking foot or free motion foot. We will have tables set up for pinning and turning the quilts. If you want to sew on labels be sure to bring your needle, scissors and thimble. Remember a pillow to sit on!

Thank you to all who came to the 5th Thursday meeting in March. I took home about 90 quilts that are ready for donation. In April 100 quilts went to the Valley of the Moon home. So far this year 91 quilts have gone to local veterans. If you are making quilts and/or tops at home we can use more boy or gender neutral NICU quilts. For Valley of the Moon we need some that appeal to teens, especially boys. Quilts also go to adults of all ages.

Thank you to all who so generously participate in making quilts for our community!

Friendship Blocks

Dear Friendship Block Quilters,

April showers (no kidding!) bring May flowers and along with that thought comes a Tomte due date. Janice has asked for your Swedish Tomte blocks to be ready in the merry month of May. Too much pressure? Take a deep breath – it is ok. Let her know if you need more time.

Judy Kubilus is hoping for Halloween House blocks in sizes 10", 8", or 6". Check the Friendship Block page on our website for ideas. www.SRQG.org.

Janet Tonkin is open to more Christmas Jar blocks. The easy to follow pattern can be found on our FB page www.SRQG.org.

Do you have a block that has caught your attention? Consider offering it as your very own friendship block. It is easy to do – just contact Janice Juul.

Enjoy the May flowers!

Sew A Row

The Sew A Row program is in full swing with 20 or so lovely projects in progress. Just about the time I get stumped on what the next row might look like, one has been returned with just the perfect addition, and the quilts are growing with lots of attention to detail and creativity. I want to say THANK YOU to all of those that have shown such enthusiasm for these "quilts to be."

Remember that the process has changed a little bit and that Sharon Oman and I are working hard to get the rows photographed and turned around for adoption at each meeting. Please don't pass your project on to another member until we have recorded and photographed it for the web page. AND speaking of the web page, if you haven't seen it yet, check it out. It is fun to see the progression of the rows, and maybe even inspiration for your own projects there.

Happy Sewing!  Toni Anderson & Sharon Oman

Boutique and Raffle

I am sorry there have been no updates the past couple of months, as we have had computer problems. Everything has been replaced including the desk, so perhaps everything will work now, including the operator.

It has been a fabulous month for the Boutique and Raffle. April 6th winners of the raffle were: Jan Robinson, Carole Behlke, Mary Ann Hayre, Jim Jensen, and Joanne LeBaudour--congratulations to the winners. The raffle netted $128 for the day. Thank you to Genelle Voorhees for the Sew-A-Row wall hanging, it was a big hit.

The Healdsburg Quilt Show was a fabulous success. Everyone agreed that it was the best of the six years. There were more quilts, and they were the most colorful yet. The show just gets better and better. The director is already looking forward to next year. Several employees commented that this is their favorite event of the whole year. Now for the record: the Guild received $175.00 just for participating; $65.00 for second place for the most colorful display, the Boutique had $339.00 in sales, (mostly thread catchers) and the Opportunity Quilt netted $239.00. A grand total of $818.00 was made for our Guild treasury.

All in all it was a great weekend for all participants and the Guilds. My heartfelt thanks to all the ladies who helped out with the hanging of the quilts, working the Boutique and selling tickets for the Opportunity Quilt, and even more so for the ones who helped take the quilts down, clean up, and load my car. They were a Godsend as I was too sore to move much for the next two days. On Friday before the show and again on Saturday there were a couple of medical emergencies causing changes in some of the plans. It worked to the advantage of the Guilds participating as not as many individual prizes were given out. But, all the money collected for the day was distributed to the guilds displaying their quilts. Everyone went home with some money.

The April 20, 2017 raffle netted $142.00, and Chris Nolen is doing a fantastic job of getting everyone to purchase raffle tickets. (Remember, if everyone attending purchases just one dollar in tickets we would net over $100 per meeting to help pay the rent for our meetings.) The winners were: Metha Schuler, Debbie Cole, Toni Anderson, Blanche Mansoor and Judy Dieter. It was a great day for everyone as we had a very entertaining and enlightening speaker for our program.

Technique Sharing Workshops

These workshops are offered free each month to our members. We all have skills and tricks to share and sometimes new ideas we bring from workshops or quilt shows. Here are some details from the next couple of TSWs.

PHYLLIS GALLAWAY - "STUDIO 180® RULERS" May 18, 2017

Phyllis will demonstrate how to use several of these rulers which she discovered at the Houston Quilt Show. If you have ever wanted to make flying geese, square in a square, any of three types of triangles in a square, quarter square triangles, hour-glass units, or split rectangles, these rulers make it so easy to be accurate. They have markings showing you what to cut, where to sew, and how to trim for the perfect units. Each ruler accommodates multiple sizes of units.

TONI ANDERSON, CATHY RAPP, VICKI DAVID AND JANICE RODGERS - "QUILT LABELS" June 15, 2017

Our talented panel will show you how to make computer printed labels, put pictures on your labels or write the story of the quilt. You can iron them on, sew them on or make embroidered labels. Lots of ways to do them, so make sure all your quilts get a name and a label. If you get stuck on how to do labels...be sure and come to this workshop.

Be sure to check the website as well for sample pictures of some labels and handouts.

Please check the calendar for other upcoming TSWs and more details will follow in the upcoming newsletters.

Ride Sharing

Dear SRQG Membership, as time passes we sometimes realize that it is probably not a good idea to drive any more. For me, it happened almost ten years ago. I realized that I had not driven in some time - years actually - because I could no longer depress the brake pedal to stop the car. I traded my driver's license for a California Identification Card, which looks exactly like my Drivers License - up to and including the individual identifying numbers. At first, I worried. It felt weird. But over time, it became a relief. It was dangerous for me to drive. Santa Rosa is much safer with me out from behind the wheel.

I have asked the board if we could test the waters to see if anyone would like to volunteer transportation for those who no longer drive. I want the initial contacts to go through me, hopefully pairing people in nearby neighborhoods, once connected I leave you to yourselves to make arrangements. If you can provide a ride, call or write me with your specifics and I will set up a ride share. Likewise, let me know if you would benefit from a ride. No one should ever miss a meeting because of transportation.

Diane Steele Workshop

Diane Steele is a lovely woman, a fabulous speaker, and a wonderful teacher. Her lecture, 'Group Quilts', was entertaining and inspiring. Her trunk show of group quilts was chock-full. The ideas for these projects were whimsical and fun and the finished quilts, amazing. If you missed the Program, get thee to the SRQG.org website and see her wonderful quilts... and be inspired. She describes herself as a rabid quilter. Being one myself, I agree.

The workshop 'Charming Silhouettes' held at Village Sewing Center was a treat. She brought many silhouettes we could trace using light boxes onto Heat and Bond, a rubbery fusible that keeps raw edges of appliques from fraying, which makes for cleaner silhouettes. For those of us who love to fuse, I find Heat and Bond the best fusible. However, it's rather stiff so it is not for a quilt to be wrapped in.

The first part of the workshop was about making the scrappy body of the quilt from a 5" square charm pack. She had us cut some of the 5" squares ever so slightly off center to create checkerboards and otherwise add interest to the background, upon which a silhouette would sit. I am in a phase of neutral so I made my own charms in golds, silvers (using ironing board covering as a fabric), beiges, browns and blacks. Love it! (Word to the wise, black is not a good choice as it could interfere with the placement of the black silhouette...) Many of us completed the charming scrappy portion of the quilt. Many of us were so inspired that the quilts grew in size well into the afternoon. You must know that I love, love, LOVE my quilt and can't wait to bring it in for show and tell.

Diane is an excellent instructor. She was completely devoted to each and every one of us. She even cut some fabric strips for me (I have leverage issues). She is kind and gracious, informative and helpful. She started a challenge with a group of five or six of the students that will culminate with a party in December! (If I didn't have one hundred thousand things on my "to do" list, I would have knocked someone over to play with the girls.)

I want to say something about the Village Sewing Center. I love workshops that are held at fabric stores. If you need something - fabric, thread, needles, fusibles - it's probably in the room. The teaching space is already set up; irons, ironing boards, extension cords, and chairs, cutting mats, and tables - everything is there and ready to be used. The only thing you need to schlep is your own sewing accoutrements. If needed, there is a technician, in this

Plentitude of Poppies

What else is there to get excited about...there is a "new to us" opportunity to have a booth at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds, a Rusty Barn Production. This is a crafting exposition where we can set up our gorgeous new Opportunity Quilt, Plentitude of Poppies, to sell raffle tickets. Admission is free. The event is Thursday May 18th, Friday the 19th and Saturday the 20th.

Also, the Wine Country Quilt Show, hosted by Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County is fast approaching, Saturday June 3rd and Sunday the 4th. In addition to amazing shopping possibilities, there is delicious food for volunteers and free admission for those who assist the Moonlighters with two shifts of service. And, as a bonus, since you'll be there anyway, you could also man (or woman) the Opportunity Quilt raffle ticket sales table!

I introduced a challenge for the Opportunity Quilt, and half a dozen people are already on board. The last Opportunity Quilt, Make Mine Plaid, I challenged myself to purchase $5.00 in raffle tickets (10 tickets) at each meeting. Five dollars times 22 meetings equals $110.00. If only 30 of us were to buy $5.00 in tickets at each meeting, the total income would be $3,300.00 smackaroos! Wouldn't that be wonderful?

case owner-operator John, who can help with machinery that is misbehaving. Jacki (at the front desk) opened the doors of the shop early and set up "tabs" for us so we could shop and get back to sewing. She also cut materials and then hand delivered them to us. At the end, there's no vacuuming and nothing to put away!

My fellow students are some of the best people on the planet. Ruth, on one side of me, and Cheryl D on the other made for excellent conversation. Mary Ann H, Carol B, and Heidi, also tablemates, are all skilled and enthusiastic. Lady Mary cut strips for me, Jan W shared a Potion of Well-Being, Phyllis brought me lunch. The entire day was divine. Thanks go out to Programs and Workshops Chair Janice Rodgers and her team of helpful enthusiasts that make SRQG one of the best guilds ever.
