President's Message

Winterset, Iowa, is most often associated with the "Bridges of Madison County" made famous by the movie of the same name. The Madison County seat, Winterset is the archetypical Midwestern town with a domed courthouse sited in the middle of beautifully landscaped town square, surrounded on all sides by ornately decorated two-story building fronts, all dating back to the 1880s. Some buildings are retail stores and restaurants; some are civic buildings like the Odd Fellows Hall or the Lion's Club; all have been beautifully preserved. A vibrant and vital town blessed with charming Victorian houses and surrounded by well-tended old farms, I'd certainly move to Winterset ... if it was in Sonoma County, but then how could I afford it?

One of the repurposed buildings on the square is the old JC Penney store. Built in 1886 as a hardware store, it housed Penney's from 1931 to 1997. "At Penney's we offer no expensive frills such as charge accounts, delivery service, or fancy wrapping." Those were the days! With the support and inspiration of longtime resident, well-known quilting author and teacher, Marianne Fons, a beautiful restoration has transformed the space into the Iowa Quilt Museum <http://iowaquiltmuseum.org/>. Original wood floors, tin ceilings and carefully designed moveable display walls make the space ideal for quilt display. Now retired from the Fons and Porter media giant, Fons is also the president of the museum board of directors. The Museum changes its show three or four times a year. We were fortunate to be there to see

"Playing with Purpose: A Victoria Findlay Wolfe Retrospective."

Victoria Findlay Wolfe was raised on a Minnesota farm; when she was four years old, she started sewing and quilting with her mother and grandmother. She settled in New York after college as an accomplished painter and artist, and shares her love of quilting through her blogsite, <http://bumblebeansinc.blogspot.com/>, promoting her philosophy of improvisational quilting.

Quilting is play time!

From her book, "15 Minutes of Play" (available in our library, of course) she writes: "Play plants seeds of creativity and encourages you to find a different way to approach your quilts. Trying something different that is out of your usual routine can be scary, but it will spark your creative inspiration. Play through quilting brings together ideas and creativity – relationships of color, texture, and fabrics. It also keeps the ideas coming. It helps you use what you already know about quilting and forces you to try new things ... As you sew a few pieces together – like putting pieces of a puzzle together – your mind is gathering information. As each 'bit' is added to the bigger picture, things become clearer, which helps you move forward. While playing, you'll have aha! (happy accident) moments along the way. One patch of fabrics can send you off on a new idea, colorway, or design.

"Don't worry about getting it wrong. You know you have enough stash to make a lot more quilts. (Wink!) Allow yourself to play, to try, without judgement and without fear that you won't know how to proceed. Laugh at your mistakes and pat yourself on the back for learning from them.

"I am a firm believer that you don't always have to know the direction you are going with a quilt. Try to let the possibilities present themselves to you as you play. Make choices as needed, and discover your options as you stumble upon them. Making your own choices, being aware of how you work, and making mistakes are all steps that lead to trusting yourself and your creative process. Being open to what your intuition is telling you and letting your unique quilts evolve is a very exciting adventure!"

I am very inspired by Wolfe's approach, and am happily "playing" with this year's Quilt Challenge (due August 2, so I better get this article done and get back to "play.")

Of course any trip out of town requires a visit (or several) to the local quilt shops. Three doors from the museum is Piece Works Quilt Shop www.pieceworksqiltshop.com/. Formally owned by Fons and Porter, the current owners offer an amazing selection of fabrics, many I have not seen here in California. Unfortunately, I had pretty much exhausted the patience of my traveling companions and decided that I would give it a quick peek and get out before I was tempted. As I left, the owner said to me, "Going fabric shopping with your husband is like going hunting with the game warden." How very true. Good thing we had a busy schedule because I would definitely have tried to return there on my own.

Gratefully, I got in a visit to my favorite store in the Amanas. The Amanas are a series of seven small villages that were founded in the late 1800's. Of German extraction like the Amish, the Amanas once practiced a lifestyle of shared goods and group rules for dress, eating and social behavior, among other things. However, they abandoned communalism as well as plain clothing long ago. A community of craftspeople, the colonies are most famous for their woolen mills and kitchen appliances. In the South Amanas is Fern Hill <https://fernhill.net/> which offers a quilter's dream shop up the rickety stairs. The store features fabric by the owner's daughter, Stephanie Brandenburg, creator of Fronde Designs, <http://fronddesignstudios.com/> where they create their own line of fabrics in super-saturated colors. I couldn't resist. I made my travel companions promise me 15 minutes alone and told them to stay downstairs. One more project added to my list.

So much for my travelogue. If you find yourself in Iowa, be sure to include these spots on your agenda. They're a lot more interesting than some old covered bridge.

Happy quilting and may your summer be productive!

Library News

On May 23 I telephoned to extend our library's subscriptions to MODERN QUILTS UNLIMITED and MACHINE QUILTING UNLIMITED and was sad to hear that later that very day an announcement was being made that both magazines would no longer be published.

The following is a list of the books that came into our possession since our last newsletter. For images of the covers and more detailed descriptions of the items, just click on LIBRARY on our website www.santarosaquiltguild.org Linda Hooper has written easy-to-understand directions about how to utilize the library site. To locate her instructions, click on the underlined "here" in the second paragraph at the top of the library page. Let me know if you would like guidance with the site and we'll sit down at the Library's laptop computer after a meeting. A hint: if you are looking for an author, remember to type in the last name first, and if you are searching for a book title, type in the first "important" word leaving the a, an, and the's 'til the end.

Want to know what our Go! Baby Accuquilt cutting system is all about? Type in Go! in the Search box at the top of our website's Library page and learn not only what it is, what it does, but also find a list of our dies. You can also find all of our Go! "toys" listed at the bottom of the Library's Home Page on our website. Our thanks to guild member Mary Reder for sharing her Go! Baby cutting machine with us. Also, a thank you to Linda Silva for giving our guild the next-larger size of cutter and many dies that she won in a raffle. Reserve the machines and dies just like a library book. Yes – we give (free) lessons!

Our brand new library items:

SIMPLE FRIENDSHIPS by Kim Diehl and Jo Morton (ideas for friendship exchanges)

JOYFUL STITCHING by Laura Wasilowski – transform fabric with hand embroidery

Go! Accuquilt die #55006 – cuts two 3.5" squares (3" finished) – use with 5 x 10" mat

SWEET CELEBRATIONS WITH THE MODA BAKE SHOP CHEFS (projects from Jelly Rolls, Layer Cakes, Fat Quarters, Charm Squares, Dessert Rolls, Honey Buns, and Turnovers – sounds too yummy, and yet no calories!) – our thanks to Linda Ziemer for donating this book.

FIRST BLUSH – BLOCK OF THE MONTH (features the Creative Grids Starburst 30 degree Triangle Ruler) – a donation

Be sure to let me know if you find an item that our library "needs" (books, DVDs, and Go! Baby dies, magazines).

Have you pawed through the ever-growing box of rulers, templates, and stencils that have been donated to our library for members to check out?

Need a fabric pen to sign a block? Sharon 'the Librarian' will loan her personal collection during meetings. Tip: Iron a piece of freezer paper to the back of the area before signing so the fabric stays taut.

And don't forget that we have magazine subscriptions to:

FONS AND PORTER'S LOVE OF QUILTING, AMERICAN QUILTER, QUILTMAKER, QUILTING ARTS MAGAZINE, and MODERNE (from Quiltmania).

We also have many past issues of:

MACHINE QUILTING UNLIMITED, MODERN QUILTS UNLIMITED, PRIMITIVE QUILTS AND PROJECTS, QUILT LIFE (Alex Anderson and Ricky Tims), MINIATURE QUILTS, Japanese magazines, QUILTMANIA (European), AND QUILTERS NEWSLETTER (all of the issues since the very beginning until October 2016 when, sadly, they quit publishing).

Wearing your nametag is a huge help to everyone. This is an excellent way for us to get to put names and faces together.

Check out as many of our more than 3,305 books, DVDs, and CDs, plus magazines, (and Go! Baby equipment as you wish) ~~ just remember to return them to the very next meeting, pretty please, as there are so many members in the guild who also wish to use the items.

Our library needs many, many volunteers. You do not need to formally sign-up to help – we'll take whatever time you can spare before or after any meeting. If you do not like the job you are given, don't be shy – let us know what you would rather do. I can never thank everyone enough for their assistance and support with making our library the best in the entire world!

Community Quilts

Summer is here. A time to take a break from our busy lives, time for friends and families. But our love for quilts and our quilting friends continues. The guild recently donated 20 quilts to the YWCA Woman's shelter. We have donated 130 NICU quilts this year, 100 to VOM, and the veterans have received 288 quilts. Above all these quilts many have been given to fire survivors in the community.

Thank you to all who help with this work. We continue to need lap size quilts, 40x60 or larger. These can be for kids, teens, adults, and seniors.

Have a safe summer and enjoy your quilting.

Pam Beebe, Laura Barrett,
Nancy Stedman & Janet Tonkin

COMMUNITY QUILT SIZES

If you are making donation quilts on your own, these are the approximate sizes most needed.

Block-of-the-Month

"J is for Joy" is the name of July's Block-of-the-Month. There is one primary reason we gather together twice a month (sometimes more) and that is because of the 'joy' quilting brings to each one of us. Visiting and being with our community of quilting friends also brings us much 'joy.'

Think of something that brings you 'joy' when you select your fabrics for this block. Fabric colors to be used are primarily any variation of green and purple/ultra violet.

My love of Sweet Pea flowers is incorporated into the example of the Joy BOM. I grow lots of lots of Sweet Peas for their delicate and soft beauty, as well as their sweet scent.

The directions are on our website:
www.santarozaquiltguild.org/block.php.

The Joy block measures 8 1/2". Sew one or as many as you like to increase your winning chances.

Congratulations to Janet Tonkin and Candi Delgado for winning the drawing for the May BOM, Majesty.

Special Note for New Members: Join in the fun of sewing a BOM. A new BOM is introduced at the first meeting of each month. You can increase your chances of winning by sewing several blocks because for every block turned in, you receive a raffle ticket. At the first meeting of the following month, a drawing takes place for one or more Guild members to win the blocks that have been completed that month.

Friendship Block Quilt

Friendship quilt blocks are fun to make. With only one block to do, you can devote extra attention to it, try a new technique or revisit an old one. I had made many friendship blocks at other quilt guilds; however, I had never requested my own friendship quilt. I had thought it would be a lot of extra work, but as you will see it isn't. I didn't have any quilt block credits here at Santa Rosa Quilt Guild, but when Sharon Fry donated her credits so that others could get started, I jumped at the chance. I had seen the beautiful, creative friendship quilts others had shown at Show and Tell.

I excitedly requested sewing room themed blocks of any size, color, or technique. Every block I got was special and I could tell that they had received that extra attention that takes a block above and beyond. I received blocks that were machine pieced, machine appliqued, hand appliqued, reverse appliqued, machine embroidered, hand embroidered, and even red work. They had beads, embroidery, buttons, tape measures, and ribbons.

The friendship blocks were all sizes from 4" by 6" to 12" by 12", as requested. I knew I would have to add to some of the blocks to make them fit together. The upcoming workshop at SRQG was miniature quilt blocks by Lorraine Olson. It occurred to me that miniature blocks would help me make my small blocks large enough to fit with 12 inch blocks. Lorraine's class was awesome. She has developed a technique that makes those little points match every time. She gave us 12 mini-patterns and I made every one of them to incorporate into the sewing room quilt. I have been seeing random quilt blocks interspersed with appliqued theme blocks in quilt magazines and liked the look. Every workshop I have attended at Santa Rosa Quilt Guild has taught me new techniques. Even if I think I know how to do a certain kind of quilt, the teachers that are booked always have something new to share or they wouldn't be there. Thanks, Rhonda. Now I know I don't have to make a whole quilt every time. I can use these learner blocks in my friendship quilts.

So after I had my mini-quilt blocks and had received all the friendship blocks, I started using sashing and combining blocks to make squares or rectangles that were 12" wide. I had also received, from the generous quilters, yards of sewing machine themed quilt fabric. I had the best time making sashing and adding my own embellishments and cutting out words to add to the quilt to make it fit together. In fact, I couldn't stop. And in one week, I put the whole quilt together AND quilted it. This has never happened to me before. Usually things go in my UFO pile for a while. I couldn't wait to share it at the next meeting. The programs at Santa Rose Quilt Guild have so much to offer and it is important to know that these quilters are so generous, so willing to give and go the extra mile and so knowledgeable and skilled that everyone should request a friendship quilt. You will be as pleased and awed as I am. Thank you to everyone who contributed to my quilt and to Janice for being so gracious in organizing it all.

Pacific International Quilt Show

Time to plan and schedule your annual PIQF Bus Trip to the Santa Clara Convention Center on October 11, 2018.

We will be leaving from the parking lot under the freeway (Hwy 12) across the street from the Santa Rosa Fairgrounds. The bus doors will be open at 7:15 am, and we will leave at 7:30 am. There is plenty of room for parking. The show is open from 10 am to 6 pm. We will be departing the convention center at 6 pm and return to Santa Rosa Fairgrounds parking lot around 8:30 pm.

The cost is $50.00 per person. This price includes the comfortable ride on the bus, the bridge toll, entrance into the show, a tip for the driver, and a few surprises. The cost is nonrefundable. If you are unable to go you may find a friend to take your seat, and I will do my best to help you locate someone. We must fill the bus to cover our cost or we will have to cancel, therefore you may invite family and friends. The only way to reserve a seat is to get your payment to me and complete the Liability Release Form and a Medical Information Form. If you wish you can place the Medical Information Form into a sealed envelope with the name of the passenger written on the front, and I will destroy these after we return or, if you wish, it may be returned to you.

To make sure your seat is reserved, you must mail or give me your check and forms as soon as possible. It is first come, first reserved.

Come join in. It is a nice way to attend the show with no stress. Leave the driving to someone else, and if you want to sleep on the way home after a long day of quilt observation and any shopping, you can do so.

Recent winners for the raffle have been: Joanie Bellinghausen, Sharon Oman, Katie Zils, Kathy Pike, Cheryl Dudley, Joyce Mustin, MaryAnn Hayre, Sue Gragg, and Chris Nolen. Congratulations to all the

July 19 2018: Zentangle with Betsy Smith

Here is just sample of what you can do playing with these tangles. Betsy will show us several samples and ways we might use the tangles in our quilting. Hands on practice and lots of fun. Don't miss it.

Please sign up ahead of time so we have enough handouts and supplies.

September 6, 2018: Carrier project bags for travel with Carole Behlke

Ever had trouble working on a project when traveling because you just couldn't keep track of the pieces and supplies. Carole has just the solution for you. As a veteran flyer and quilter she has solved the problem! This is a great project you can easily make for your travels too.

If you have an idea of something you want to learn or something you can share with the guild in a 15 minute to one hour talk/presentation, come and see me.

Stay tuned...more interesting workshops to come this year!
