President's Message

Once again, I've waited to the last minute with my President's message. I'm not sure why I have a reluctance to write but I know for sure I'd never make a living at it. Every month I get an opportunity to reach out and bore you all into a stupor and I'm not going to waste it, so here goes.

For many of us, vacation season is over and we are starting or completing our never ending projects. There's Halloween, then Thanksgiving, and then Christmas and all of a sudden, a feeling of panic starts to tighten around your throat. As the song says, "Don't worry, be happy," but that only seems to work for me after a bottle of Glenlivet Scotch so the alternative is to get down to business and buy some quilts off of Etsy. Ha! Just kidding.

My understanding we have twenty-one people on the retreat waiting list. If Zephyr Point has a time period open, we might just have a second retreat. My retreat was spent making four shirts (I sew all my shirts) and I like to joke that Omar the Tentmaker sews them. Proof provided by the photo on the Guild Retreat website: <http://santarosaquilters.weebly.com/blog.html>

Ok, I think I've written enough to qualify as a President's message so I'll leave you with this thought. Don't forget—UFO's are due at the next meeting. So much for pressure. Right.

PROGRAM THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2013 ~ "TRUNK SHOW"

Hello Santa Rosa Quilt Guild!

I am over the moon with excitement to share my work and stories this November. Just think; I will have the microphone for nearly an hour! It will be my honor to talk about the Guild, its influence in my life and all that I have learned over the past five years by being an active member, a Board member, and co-chairing various committees and focusing on projects from Workshops, Mini-groups, Block of the Month, Friendship Blocks, and participating in Quilt Shows, Community Quilts, Opportunity Quilts, Luncheons, and - most importantly - relationships.

Community Quilts

QUILTATHON OCTOBER 3rd!

Our last Quiltathon of the year is on Thursday, October 3rd from 9:15 am to 3 pm at our normal meeting place.

At 10 am we will break for a brief business meeting, library report, and show-and-tell, then we'll continue to work and visit. Some of us will stay all day, but when you come and go is up to you.

We have quilts ready to pin, machine sew, trim & turn, iron, machine quilt, and hand sew. Experienced guild members will be on hand to help any who need instruction.

We will set up tables for pinning (basting) quilts and will supply the pins.

At other tables we will have mats and rotary cutters set up for trimming quilts before they are turned. If you'd like to sew around the edges of quilts or work on quilting, bring your machine with a walking or free-motion foot.

If you prefer to hand sew, please bring your own scissors, needles, and thimble.

Come join the fun!

 Pam Beebe & Anne Dondero

Library News

The following is a list of the books that came into our possession since our last newsletter. For images of the covers and more detailed descriptions of the items, just click on LIBRARY on our website www.santarosaquiltquild.org. Linda Hooper has written easy-to-understand directions about how to utilize the library site. To locate her instructions, click on the underlined "here" in the second paragraph at the top of the library page. Let me know if you would like guidance with the site and we'll sit down at the Library's laptop computer after a meeting. A hint: if you are looking for an author, remember to type in the last name first, and if you are searching for a book title, type in the first "important" word leaving the a, an, and the's 'til the end.

Opportunity Quilt

Please check your calendar for September 20-22. Sonoma County Fall Home and Garden Show will be our last big fund raiser of the year and I have 6 spots open: Saturday 4-7 and Sunday 1-4. These are times of great foot traffic so you can smile, talk and educate the public on the work we do for our community. This is also great time for new members to get to know other guild members so sign up and have FUN!!

I have also arranged to have a table at Broadway Quilts for the Annual Shop Hop on November 9th. For those of you living in Sonoma, it would be great to have some help manning this table between 9:45-6:00.

Remember to pick up your "Vintage Friendship Garden" raffle tickets at our meetings. You can purchase tickets for yourself, sell them to friends, or even give them as a gift (yes, it is that time of year AGAIN!!). I have postcards that show what our wonderful quilt looks like when you approach your family and friends for support of Santa Rosa Quilt Guild. The postcards will be at the Membership Table along with your tickets. Remember the guild asks you for this small donation ($20=4 books) to help support Community Quilts, Speaker Fees, to keep our Workshop Fees low, and to help pay rent. So pick-up your tickets next meeting, it is important.

Boutique & Raffle

Members...Have you missed us? Life and meeting activities pre-empted setting up boutique and raffle numerous times. The treasury probably missed us most. Your generous participation normally pays for a good portion of the guild's rent. We are so lucky to have such a wonderful facility to hold our meetings. It is rapidly approaching time for election (or volunteers) for 2014 officers, and time also to think about how each of us can help keep our meetings fun and running smoothly. As I've stated so many times before, the boutique and raffle can always use help with the setting up and taking down. It's a lot of work for only one or two people but gets done quickly with less effort when there are more people working on it. We all appreciate the help and enjoy visiting during the process. Curiosity brings up a question, "how many members read this entirely?" If you are one who does come by the boutique and take our poll. Thanks again to everyone who does offer to help or doesn't complain when they get reined in while walking by. The supply of thread catchers is building back up with those returned at each meeting. Thanks ladies! They are still our best seller and money maker. See you at the next meeting.
